

Philip Dickel Basket Museum announces 2017 basket exhibit

“COLORFUL BASKETS: NATURALLY & DYED”

May 1, 2017 to September 30, 2017

West Amana, IA 52203

Submission dates: from now until Feb. 15, 2017

Since 2004, Philip Dickel Basket Museum has gathered together basket from across the USA for their Exhibits. We have had many themes throughout those years. This year’s theme will feature “Color”. Natural materials have their own color, some naturals can be dyed. Reed can be natural or dyed or a combination. Dyes can be natural and organic or commercial.

Our purpose has always been to promote basketry of every form, technique and material, showing what is happening in basketry today and the past.

TIME TABLE: Accepting submission and intent to submit now until Feb.15, 2017

ACCPANCE NOTICE: Jan. 2 until Feb 20, 2017

BASKETS TO ARRIVE BY: APRIL 15, 2017 (unless other arrangement have been made)
